

About the Firm

In 2007, sisters Marianna and Susan established the Pontoriero Law Firm. Both accomplished attorneys with a long history of practicing law in the state of New Jersey, the Pontoriero Law Firm fulfilled Marianna and Susan's ambition to open a practice together. Founded on the principles of strong family values and a commitment to excellence, the Pontoriero Law Firm prides itself on its unwavering dedication to achieving the best results for its clients. With over 16 years of combined experience practicing law in the state of New Jersey, the Pontoriero Law Firm is able to assist you with any of your legal needs. Specifically, attorneys Marianna and Susan Pontoriero specialize in:

Divorce Litigation Civil Unions and Dissolutions Domestic Partnerships DYFS Matters Visitation Adoptions Mediation (Qualified NJ Supreme Court) Child Custody Actions Juvenile Court Domestic Violence Alimony and Child Support Wills Prenuptial/Postnuptial Agreements Corporate Law Traffic Violations DUI/DWI As a small firm with a compassionate and knowledgeable staff, the Pontoriero Law Firm builds relationships with each of the individuals, families, and businesses that it represents. The firm has helped to bring families together by guiding clients through the complex adoption process, advising clients before entering into a marriage or civil union, and drafting wills to help ensure stability and security to families during difficult times. The Pontoriero Law Firm also advises clients through divorces and other related issues, helping to make the often-emotional process as smooth as possible. For businesses, our attorneys have the experience necessary to help make your company stronger as it grows and develops. The Pontoriero Law Firm is committed to working with and advising each of its clients to the best of its abilities. Contact our firm for more information on how we can help you. Serving clients throughout New Jersey, including Monmouth, Ocean, and Middlesex counties, the staff at the Pontoriero Law Firm is available to assist you in any of your legal needs.